At YES iDo Events, every event tells a story, a story of purpose, pride, and connection. What began as a small team with a shared dream has grown into one of Timor-Leste's most trusted partners in professional event planning and production.

When I helped establish YES iDo Events, my vision was clear, to demonstrate that Timorese can lead events with professionalism and excellence, and to empower local talent to take the lead. I wanted to show that with discipline, creativity, and hard work, we can deliver world-class experiences that showcase our country's potential. Moreover, I'm passionate about promoting women-led initiatives through entrepreneurship and organizing, and inspiring fellow women to chase their dreams and prove to ourselves and the world that our potential knows no bounds.

Through YES iDo Events, I hope to inspire a new generation of Timorese leaders and entrepreneurs, especially women, to pursue their passions and make a meaningful impact in our community. Together with my co-founder, Fidelia Ribeiro, and our talented team, we have built a company that blends structure with artistry, where every detail matters and every client is treated as a partner.

We believe that excellence is more than perfect coordination; it is empathy, teamwork, and respect for culture. Whether managing a national conference, a diplomatic mission, or an intimate wedding, we approach each event with the same care, precision, and passion.

Our promise is simple: "We carry the pressure so you can live the moment". Thank you for trusting YES iDo Events to be part of your story.

Lezarda Piedade

Founder & CEO

Background

YES iDo Events is a Timor-Leste–based event planning and production company delivering professionally managed, design-led, and protocol-ready events for corporate, government, diplomatic, and private clients. We believe events are not merely gatherings, they are strategic moments that shape relationships, communicate messages, and leave lasting impressions.

Founded in 2019 by Lezarda Piedade and Fidelia Ribeiro, YES iDo Events was created to elevate the standard of event execution in Timor-Leste by combining professional discipline, women-led leadership, aesthetic refinement, and a stress-free client experience. Our work integrates planning, styling, logistics, guest management, and on-site execution to ensure that every event is not only successful but thoughtfully designed and impeccably delivered.

Mission

To plan, design and execute events from start to finish with precision, creativity and integrity, ensuring every event clearly reflects our client's vision, exceeds expectations, and upholds the quality standards that YES iDo Events is known for. We commit to building long-term trust with our clients by working collaboratively, managing details with care, and providing services that combine professionalism, culture, and reliability at every stage of the event.

Vision

To be Timor-Leste's most trusted women-led event partner, delivering events with professional discipline, creative excellence, cultural and protocol sensitivity, and a client experience that is stress-free, dignified, and memorable for both institutions and families.

Our Approach

Corporate Events

We manage timelines, vendors, logistics, crew and protocol with discipline and clarity, ensuring every element is executed as planned and nothing is left to chance.

Design with Purpose

Every visual and spatial decision is intentional, not just to decorate a venue, but to shape the atmosphere, guest experience, and meaning of the event.

Client Peace of Mind

We take ownership of the complexity so our clients can be fully present with their guests, confident that all details are under control.

Cultural & Contextual Intelligence

We respect protocol, tradition, and the social context of every event, delivering with sensitivity whether the event is diplomatic, formal, or deeply personal.

Services

Corporate Events

We plan and manage corporate events with discretion, accuracy, and brand alignment. From executive dinners to stakeholder engagements, we control timelines, vendors, technical teams, and guest experience so the event runs as intended. We ensure that the flow, tone, and environment reflect the company's reputation and purpose. While you lead the room, we manage everything behind the scenes so the outcome is both polished and stress-free.

Government & Diplomatic Functions

We manage official launches, delegations, and state-aligned functions where ceremonial accuracy, security alignment, and protocol discipline cannot be compromised. Our team ensures correct sequencing, guest hierarchy, seating, announcements, and backstage order to uphold institutional standards. We work in coordination with ministries, embassies, and security teams to align with the SOP so that hosts remain confident and respected throughout the event.

Workshops & Conferences

We manage workshops, seminars, and conferences with structured precision handling staging, registration, speakers, breakout sessions, interpretation, and AV coordination so hosts can focus on content. Every transition is timed to keep participants engaged, and we also arrange logistics and sightseeing for international guests.

Social Events

We produce concerts, festivals, and social nights where entertainment and movement need professional oversight. From staging and sound to crowd-flow and risk prevention, we ensure the event feels vibrant without losing control or safety.

Product Launch & Band Activation

We support multi-session workshops, seminars, and conferences where structure and technical discipline shape participant experience. We manage staging, registration, speaker choreography, breakout sessions, interpretation, and coordination with audio-visual teams so hosts can focus on content delivery. Every transition, announcement, and session is managed to protect timing and participant engagement. In addition, we assist with logistical arrangement and sightseeing following the conferences for international guests.

Themed Parties

We produce cultural and lifestyle events such as African Nights, Latina Nights, Masquerade Galas or Retro-Era parties, where mood and identity must be felt across every detail. We align styling, music, lighting, and movement to bring the theme to life without sacrificing order and professionalism.

Weddings & Engagements

We coordinate weddings and engagements with sensitivity to culture, emotion, and precision in timing. From vendor alignment to ceremonial sequences, we take over the complexity so families can remain present and calm. We manage guest movement, rituals, styling and run-of-show to ensure the event feels elegant, heartfelt, and stress-free for the hosts.

Birthdays & Private Parties

We manage birthdays, baptisms, anniversaries and family gatherings with the same discipline used in institutional events, but with a more intimate, personal tone. We ensure the environment, flow, and mood reflect the intention of the host while removing stress and coordination from their hands.
